

Concision & Transitions

Workbook 1 - Learn - Focused practice

Directions

Focus on the rule and explain why the other choices fail.

Exercise 1

The manager made a decision to extend the pilot.

Task: Choose the most concise revision.

- A. The manager decided to extend the pilot.
- B. The manager made a decision to extend the pilot.
- C. The manager came to a decision in regard to extending the pilot.
- D. A decision was made by the manager for extension of the pilot.

Exercise 2

The road was flooded. _____, the bus used a detour.

Task: Choose the best transition.

- A. Therefore
- B. However
- C. For example
- D. Similarly

Exercise 3

The report lists three concerns. _____, it notes that the waiting area has only twelve seats.

Task: Choose the transition introducing an example.

- A. For example
- B. Therefore
- C. However
- D. Meanwhile

Exercise 4

The team repeated the test again a second time.

Task: Choose the concise revision.

- A. The team repeated the test.
- B. The team repeated the test again a second time.
- C. The team did a repetition of the test again.
- D. Again a second test repetition was done by the team.

Answer reasoning

Check the rule and the meaning, not only the letter.

For every miss, identify whether the problem was grammar, punctuation, word meaning, sentence logic, or a rushed reading of the context.

Exercise 1

Best answer: A. The manager decided to extend the pilot.

Why: Decided replaces the wordy phrase without changing meaning.

Exercise 2

Best answer: A. Therefore

Why: The flooded road caused the detour, so a result transition is appropriate.

Exercise 3

Best answer: A. For example

Why: The second sentence gives one specific example of a concern.

Exercise 4

Best answer: A. The team repeated the test.

Why: Repeated already means did again, so again and a second time are redundant.

Mistake check

Rewrite one missed sentence correctly. Then state the rule in one short sentence you could use on a new example.
