- B. ,
- C. ;
- D. :

Answer reasoning

Check the rule and the meaning, not only the letter.

For every miss, identify whether the problem was grammar, punctuation, word meaning, sentence logic, or a rushed reading of the context.

Exercise 1

Best answer: A. Although the software reduced duplicate entries, managers still found several labeling errors.

Why: The dependent although-clause must attach to the main clause.

Exercise 2

Best answer: A. The manager reviewed the log; she called the technician immediately.

Why: A semicolon correctly joins the two closely related independent clauses without inventing cause or contrast.

Exercise 3

Best answer: A. No punctuation is needed.

Why: The words before the blank do not form a complete clause; the verb includes flows directly into its objects.

Exercise 4

Best answer: A. , and

Why: The comma + and joins two independent commands with an additive relationship.

Mistake check

Rewrite one missed sentence correctly. Then state the rule in one short sentence you could use on a new example.
