

Point of view / perspective - Workbook 3

Focused practice - Workbook 3 of 3

How to use this workbook

Read each text closely. Decide what relationship the question is testing before looking at the options. After checking the key, explain why the strongest wrong answer fails.

Before you start

- Use the surrounding text, not one isolated keyword.
- Prefer precise relationship words such as illustrates, qualifies, contrasts, supports, or results in.
- Do not accept an answer that merely summarizes when the question asks about function or effect.

Water Report

The author summarizes a utility company's claim that the new meters improve leak detection, then quotes a consumer advocate who wants clearer rules for billing disputes.

1. Which statement best describes the perspective or perspectives in this text?

- A. The utility emphasizes operational benefits, while the advocate emphasizes customer protections.
- B. Every person in the text emphasizes exactly the same concern.
- C. The author or narrator has complete access to every person's private thoughts.
- D. The text gives an opinion unrelated to the issue being discussed.

2. What is the effect of presenting the text from this perspective or set of perspectives?

- A. It removes all uncertainty and disagreement from the text.
- B. Attributing each claim prevents readers from confusing stakeholder positions with the author's own conclusion.
- C. It proves one viewpoint is correct without evidence.
- D. It prevents readers from understanding any difference in priorities.

Art Review

The reviewer calls the exhibition "carefully restrained" and praises the decision to leave large areas of wall empty between paintings. Another visitor quoted in the review says the same spacing makes the gallery feel unfinished.

3. Which statement best describes the perspective or perspectives in this text?

- A. Every person in the text emphasizes exactly the same concern.
- B. The author or narrator has complete access to every person's private thoughts.
- C. The reviewer sees restraint as intentional and effective; the visitor sees the same feature as incompleteness.
- D. The text gives an opinion unrelated to the issue being discussed.

4. What is the effect of presenting the text from this perspective or set of perspectives?

- A. It removes all uncertainty and disagreement from the text.
- B. It proves one viewpoint is correct without evidence.
- C. It prevents readers from understanding any difference in priorities.
- D. The two perspectives show how the same design choice can produce different judgments.

School Phones

A principal argues that keeping phones in lockers reduces distraction. A student representative agrees about class time but says students should be able to access phones during lunch for family messages.

5. Which statement best describes the perspective or perspectives in this text?

- A. Both value focus in class, but the student perspective places more weight on access during breaks.
- B. Every person in the text emphasizes exactly the same concern.
- C. The author or narrator has complete access to every person's private thoughts.
- D. The text gives an opinion unrelated to the issue being discussed.

6. What is the effect of presenting the text from this perspective or set of perspectives?

- A. It removes all uncertainty and disagreement from the text.
- B. The shared concern and remaining disagreement make the debate more nuanced than simple support versus opposition.
- C. It proves one viewpoint is correct without evidence.
- D. It prevents readers from understanding any difference in priorities.

Answer key and reasoning

1. A. The utility emphasizes operational benefits, while the advocate emphasizes customer protections.
2. B. Attributing each claim prevents readers from confusing stakeholder positions with the author's own conclusion.
3. C. The reviewer sees restraint as intentional and effective; the visitor sees the same feature as incompleteness.
4. D. The two perspectives show how the same design choice can produce different judgments.
5. A. Both value focus in class, but the student perspective places more weight on access during breaks.
6. B. The shared concern and remaining disagreement make the debate more nuanced than simple support versus opposition.

Mistake review

- If you summarized instead of explaining a relationship, label it summary-not-function.
- If you chose a transition or structure because of one keyword, label it one-clue trap.
- If you confused a quoted perspective with the author's own view, label it viewpoint source.
- If you named a rhetorical device but missed what it achieves, label it effect missed.
- Redo missed questions later without looking at the key.
