

Tone - Workbook 2

Focused practice - Workbook 2 of 3

How to use this workbook

Read each short text closely. Answer without checking the key. Then compare your reasoning with the explanation and mark the mistake type if you were wrong.

Before you start

- Underline or mentally mark the exact wording that controls your answer.
- Do not choose an option just because it is true in general; it must fit this text.
- After checking, write one sentence explaining why the strongest wrong answer fails.

Museum Review

"The new gallery does not shout for attention. It earns it," the reviewer writes, praising the careful lighting and uncluttered labels.

1. What tone does the reviewer use?

- A. admiring
- B. hostile
- C. confused
- D. dismissive

2. Which detail most strongly supports the tone?

- A. new gallery
- B. careful lighting and uncluttered labels
- C. writes
- D. attention

Safety Memo

"Please do not treat the temporary barrier as optional," the supervisor writes after workers repeatedly moved it aside.

3. What tone is most evident?

- A. firm
- B. amused
- C. celebratory
- D. uncertain

4. What creates the tone most strongly?

- A. temporary
- B. Please do not treat ... as optional
- C. workers
- D. after

Science Article

The researcher describes the result as "surprising, but hardly a final answer."

5. Which tone best fits the statement?

- A. curious but cautious
- B. triumphant
- C. furious
- D. bored

6. Why is triumphant too strong?

- A. The statement explicitly says the result is not final.
- B. The result was expected.
- C. The researcher is not named.
- D. The sentence has a quotation mark.

Answer key and reasoning

Museum Review

1. A. The reviewer praises the restrained design and says it earns attention.
2. B. These approving details provide evidence for the admiring tone.

Safety Memo

3. A. The direct command and word optional show insistence.
4. B. The explicit instruction conveys firmness without necessarily sounding angry.

Science Article

5. A. Surprising shows interest while hardly a final answer limits certainty.
6. A. A triumphant tone would conflict with the clear caution about final conclusions.

Mistake review

- If you chose a familiar meaning that did not fit the context, label it wrong sense.
- If you chose an option based on one word but ignored the rest of the passage, label it one-clue trap.
- If you understood the basic meaning but missed attitude or effect, label it effect missed.
- Redo the question later without looking at the key.
